FOREWORD

We of the TIGER CLAW have tried to choose a theme for this year that would vary from the usual type. For this year's theme, we have chosen Aerial Transportation, a subject as interesting and rapid-rising as any. It is our sincere desire that you may gain some knowledge of the various types of aircraft in the following pages.

JM

The F-86 MIG-15, foremost jet fighter of the day.

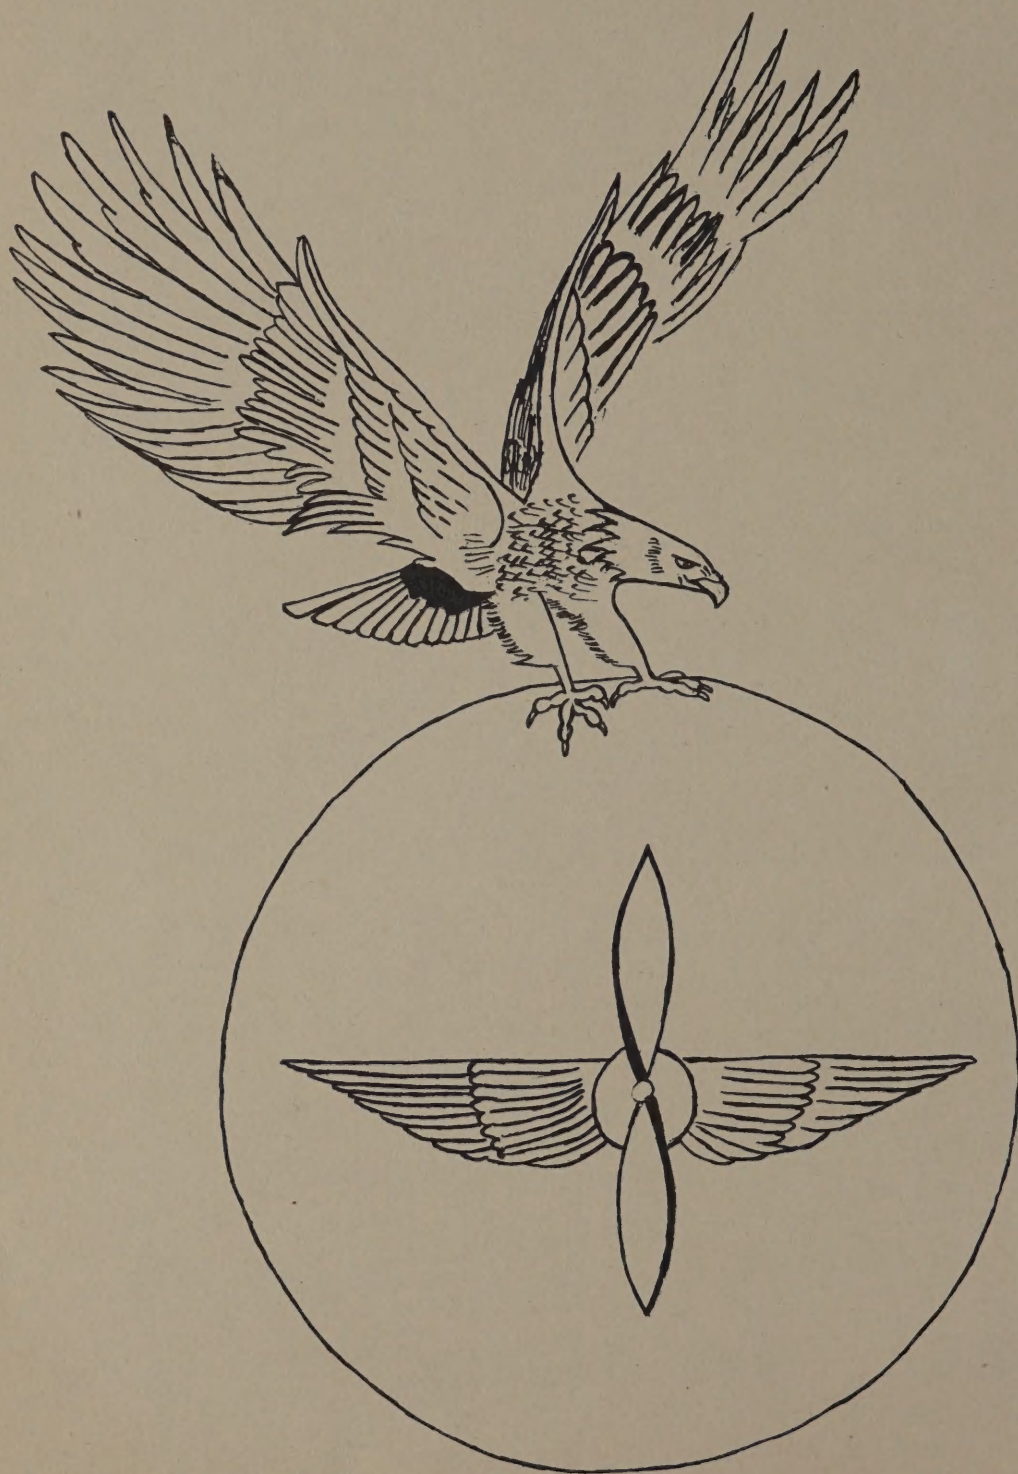

JM.

The French-made air balloon, early pioneer of successful air travel.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY OF '52

Mary Bonham has just bought her own little ranch of about 1,000 cows. She is living at the same old place near Red River. She finally managed to catch her a man. He is a city slicker whom she turned into a cowboy.

Well, well, look at the two old maids, Ruby and Betty. They finally have an insurance company of their own. They are visiting Clarksville for a little vacation. After spending a week with their parents, they plan to drive down to Florida in their new Cadillac for a business convention. I wonder if these girls will ever get married. They are still making their regular trips to Detroit, maybe there is still a chance.

As most of you know, our steady couple got married immediately after they graduated. I was visiting Jewel the other day, and she told me that they have been getting along fine. With only six children to attend to, she has very little housework to do, and the family makes out fine on that 100 dollars a week that Bill manages to bring in from his gambling.

Mrs. Carl Williams, the former Miss Bolton, was seen at the Stork Club last night with Buck Cagle. This looks like she's still up to her old tricks of two-timing.

We see that Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Jamison are expecting their 10th child. We hope this one is a boy since the other nine are all girls.

As we look ahead about ten years we see Betty Garrett with her new husband, John Williams. It seems that they have done pretty well during the last few years. Betty has managed to get John to buy a whole line of "Top" Drive-inns, and she has the whole Williams family, which consists of four girls, now working like little beavers.

We find Mrs. Beatrice Crader still getting her husband off to work at five o'clock in the morning. Poor Beatrice, she has been doing this for ten years now, but she doesn't seem to mind. Please, Don, light the fires for her, so it won't be so cold in the mornings when she has to get up.

James Burrow has finally decided to put parking meters out on the "loop." By the way, he manages to live on the income from these.

For her wonderful work in the medical corps, Miss Ima Collvins has been voted "Miss Florence Nightengale of 1962."

Miss DeLoyce Herrington is now head of the Spanish Department in the University of Mexico. She is raising Mexican chihuahuas as a hobby.

Paul Foster is really cleaning up the stock market. He sweeps out the building every day.

Mary Jane Parks has her own orphans home. Her motto is "Get 'em young and raise 'em to suit yourself."

Doris Stroud owns her own dancing school. She teaches you how to step on boy's toes politely in three easy lessons.

Miss Jean Cornett and Jane Conlan have been living in England for the past ten years. They still get mixed up driving on the right side of the road, but their careers as school teachers are really thriving.

Well, well, Mary Kathryn Roberts has finally won the academy award for her performance in "Blondie Meets Dagwood."

Mary Ann Terry is still going to college. It seems that there's a cute typing teacher each year.

Mickey Good is still a Private-First Class in the National Guard.

Coach Strickland has been having trouble with his West Point Football Team. It seems they all want to join the Navy.

Raymond King has decided that the life of a hermit is quite lonesome. He now has a job as porter in Grand Central Station.

Dora Rose has recently accepted the position of shorthand teacher in Clarksville after ten years of training.

Jackie Tipping has finally managed to buy his own gambling casino in Reno. We hear he is making a nice profit.

SENIOR CLASS WILL OF '52

We, the class of 1952, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, hereby revoke and make void all former wills or promises by us at any time heretofore made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken one to the other, as the thoughtless wish of an idle hour.

The senior class of 1952, which will soon depart from the dear old halls of Clarksville High School, wishes to will Mr. Tate, our beloved superintendent, our admiration for years to come. To Mr. Caldwell, our generous principal, we leave our undying gratitude for the many favors he has bestowed upon us. We leave to the other members of the faculty our appreciation for all they have done for us, and deepest sympathy goes to them when we think of what they have to go through next year.

Wayne Strickland wills his ability to play football and to go steady to Billy Burks.

Doris Stroud leaves next year's football sweetheart as much happiness as she shared with the team this year. She also leaves her flirting ability to Shirley Hammer.

Paul Foster leaves his promptness to class to Louella Guinn.

To Cynthia Witmer, Mary Jane Parks leaves her short hair and sweet disposition. Take advantage of this, Cynthia.

Raymond King has decided that he would just keep Hiawatha; so he's leaving his perfect attendance to Claude Davidson.

Mary Kathryn Roberts leaves her cute figure and neat hair to Cora Ham.

Dottie Bolton leaves her baby bottle to Mr. Harris and her ability to carry on a conversation continuously to Billie McGuire. She also leaves Buck Cagle to all his admiring female fans.

Dora Rose leaves her love of books and her ability to write themes to Steve Gifford and Marion Kerr.

Mary Ann Terry leaves her polite ways to Elizabeth Varley. We all hope Liz takes this to heart.

To Steve Gifford, Pete Norris, and Harold Conway, Betty Garrett wills her ability to work algebra.

Ima Collvins leaves her quiet ways to Alice Kaiser, Marilyn Athas, and Sue Quarrels.

Jo Jo Jamison leaves her ability to get married to Melba Alsup. What about that, Ray?

While we're speaking of getting married, Beatrice Crader wants to leave her luck to Joyce Lynn Allen.

To Bob Igo, Mary Bonham wills her ability to spell.

Mickey Good leaves his shortness, small feet, and most of all, BRAINS to Buck Cagle.

To Ray Denny, James Burrow leaves his nice head of wavy hair.

Betty DeShazer leaves her short hair and her yelling ability at football games to Joyce Bollman.

To Rickey Whiteman, DeLoyce Herrington leaves her ability to write themes, speeches, and reports.

Ruby Bailey wills her success in turning cartwheels to Peggy Steward.

To Buddy Cooper, Jackie Tipping leaves his place in the lunchroom.

Jean Cornett doesn't want to leave Jimmie; so she wills Charles David Jackson to Martha Cagle.

To Melva Martin, Jewel Townes leaves her flag bearer's uniform.

Bill Igo wills his quiet ways to Bill Rains.

To Margaret Pope, Jane Conlan leaves her graceful way of walking and her sweet disposition.

The "Silly Seven" leave their quiet and serious ways to Ann Hale, Cynthia Witmer, Elizabeth Varley, and Peggy Steward.

Last but no means least, we, the Seniors of 1952, leave to Miss Van Dyke, our well-loved sponsor, our sincere affection and heartiest gratitude.

In witness whereof, we, the class of '52, the testators, have to this our will, written on one sheet of parchment, set our hands and seal this thirtieth day of May, Anno Domini, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two.

Football sweetheart of 1951, Doris Stroud has made all football activity a little better and more pleasant by her attendance and willing support.

Lenard Phillips and Robert Cole, two hard-working managers who have made the football season more successful with their unfailing sportsmanship and service.

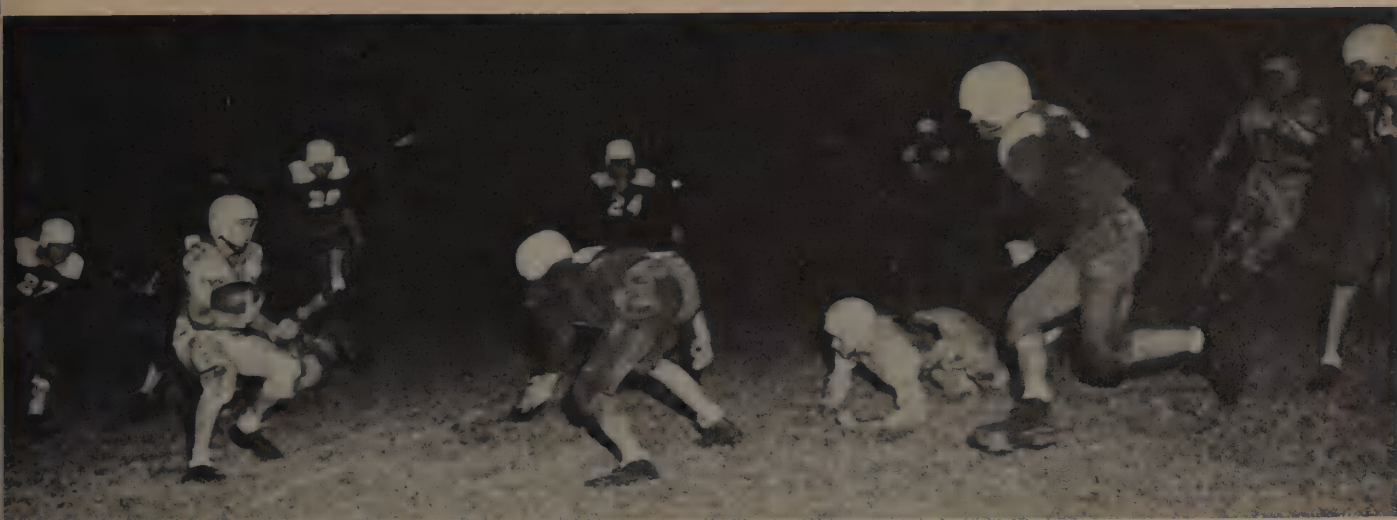

For six years now, Coach Raymond Bennett has been constantly earning the respect and admiration of the entire student body. Our many successful football seasons serve as a constant reminder of his outstanding ability as a coach and instructor.

ALL HAIL, Alma Mater
Thou Queen of all the rest.
In all our fond memories
Thy name we love the best;
And as we walk the path of life
Or sail the storm tossed seas
Our beacon light shall ever be
Our days of Clarksville High School.
